Avecia Announces Opening of Cambridge, MA Office

CAMBRIDGE, MA — Nitto Denko Avecia, Inc. (Avecia), a leader in oligonucleotide API (active pharmaceutical ingredient) manufacturing, announced today the opening of a new corporate office in Cambridge, MA, to support its operations and corporate development activities, and to be more accessible to clients.

Detlef Rethage, President of Avecia stated, “The new office, located in Kendall Square, the hotspot for oligonucleotides-based therapeutics, brings Avecia, its subsidiary Nitto Avecia Pharma Services, and all other Nitto Life Sciences activities closer to its existing partners in the US. This is just another step the organization is taking in support of Nitto’s corporate credo, ‘NITTO EVERYWHERE’.”

Avecia will be attending the 10th Annual AsiaTIDES conference in Kyoto, Japan, February 27-March 1, 2018. To learn more about Avecia’s continuous growth, please visit us at booth A-5 or learn more at www.Avecia.com.
